POETRY.

Modern Troy seems to be without a Homer; though it can boast of a very distinguished Acrostic operative, who has invented an ingenious article in his line, in blank verse, [!] for the brow of a modern Ajax. We should think he would prefer a wig.

DREAMS.

The following case will interest the reader, both on its own account, and from the remarkable coincidence between the dream and the succeeding calamity ; but, like all other instances of the kind, this also must be referred to chance.

"Being in company the other day, when the conversation turned upon dreams, I related one, which, as it happened to my own father, I can answer for the perfect truth of it. About the year 1731, my father, Mr D. of K——, in the County of Cumberland, came to Edinburgh to attend the classes, having the advantage of an uncle in the regiment then in the Castle, and remained under the protection of his uncle and aunt, Major and Mrs Griffiths, during the winter. When spring arrived, Mr D. and three of four young gentlemen from England, (his inmates), made parties to visit all the neighboring places about Edingburgh, Roslin, Arthur's Seat, Craig-Millar, &c. &c. Coming home one evening from some of those places, Mr D. said, 'We have made a party to go a fishing to Inch-Keith to-morrow, if the morning is fine, and have bespoke our boat ; we shall be off at six ;' no objection being made, they separated for the night.

"Mrs Griffiths had not been long asleep, till she screamed out in the most violent agitated manner, 'The boat is sinking ; save, oh, save them !' The Major awaked her, and said, 'Were you uneasy about the fishing party ?' Oh, no,' said she, I had not once thought of it.' She then composed herself, and soon fell asleep again : in about an hour, she cried out in a dreadful fright, 'I see the boat is going down.' The Major again awoke her, and she said, 'It has been owing to the other dream I had, for I feel no uneasiness about it.' After some conversation, they both fell sound asleep, but no rest could be obtained for her ; in the most extreme agony, she again screamed, 'They are gone ; the boat is sunk !' When the Major awakened her, she said, 'Now I cannot rest ; Mr D. must not go, for I feel, should he go, I would be miserable till his return ; the thoughts of it would almost kill me."

"She instantly arose, threw on her wrapping-gown, and with great difficulty she got his promise to remain at home. 'But what am I to say to my young friends whom I was to meet at Leith at six o'clock ?' 'With great truth you may say your aunt is ill, for I am so at present ; consider, you are an only son, under our protection, and should any thing happen to you, it would be my death.' Mr D. immediately wrote a note to his friends, saying he was prevented from joining them, and sent his servant with it to Leith. The morning came in most beautifully and continued so till three o'clock, when a violent storm arose ; and in an instant the boat, and all that were in it, went to the bottom, and were never heard of, nor was any part of it ever seen."

"My mother being sick to death of a fever, three months after I was born, which was the occasion she gave me suck no longer, her friends and servants thought to all outward appearance she was dead, and so lay almost two days and a night ; but Dr. Winston coming to comfort my father, went into my mother's room, and looking earnestly on her face, said, 'She was so handsome, and now looks so lovely, I cannot think she is dead ;' and suddenly took a lancet out of his pocket, and with it cut the sole on her foot, which bled. Upon this, he immediately caused her to be laid upon the bed again, and to be rubbed, and by such means, as she came to life, and opening her eyes, saw two of her kinswomen standing by her. My Lady Knolly and my Lady Russell, both with their great wide sleeves, as the fashion then was, and said, 'Did not you promise me fifteen years, and are you come again ?' which they not understanding, persuaded her to keep her spirits quiet in that great weakness wherein she then was ; but some hours after, she desired my father and Dr. Howlworth might be left alone with her, to whom she said, 'I will acquaint you, that during the time of my trance I was in great quiet, but in a place I could neither distinguish nor describe ; but the sense of leaving my girl, who is dearer to me than all my children, remained a trouble upon my spirits. Suddenly I saw two by me, clothed in long white garments, and methought I fell down upon my face upon the dust ; and they asked why I was so troubled in so great happiness. I replied, O let me have the same grant given to Hezekiah, that I may live fifteen years to see my daughter a woman ; to which they answered, It is done ; and then, at that instant, I awoke out of my trance !' and Dr. Howlsworth did there affirm, that that day she died made just fifteen years from that time."

A sufficiently striking instance of such coincidence occurs in the case of Dr Donne, the metaphysical poet ; but I believe, that in this case, it was a spectral illusion rather than a common dream. Two days after he had arrived in Paris, he was left alone in a room where he had been dining with Sir Robert Drury and a few companions. Sir Robert returned about an hour afterwards. He found his friend in a state of ecstacy, and so altered in his countenance, that he could not look upon him without amazement. The Dr was not able for some time to answer the question, what had befallen him ? —but after a long and perplexed pause, at last said, 'I have seen my dear wife pass twice by me through this room, with her hair hanging about her shoulders, and a dead child in her arms. This I have seen since I saw you.' To which Sir Robert answered, 'Sure, Sir, you have slept since I went out ; and this is the result of some melancholy dream, which I desire you to forget, for you are now awake.' Donne replied, 'I cannot be more sure that I now live, than that I have not slept since I saw you, and am as sure that at her senond appearance she stopped, looked me in the face, and vanished.'

It is certainly very curious that Mrs Donne, who was then in England, was at this time sick in bed, and had been delivered of a dead child, on the same day, and about the same hour, that the vision occurred. There were distressing circumstances in the marriage of Dr Donne which account for his mind being strongly impressed with the image of his wife, to whom he was exceedingly attached ; but these do not render the coincidence above related less remarkable.

I do not doubt that the apparition of Julius Cæsar, which appeared to Brutus, and declared it would meet him at Philippi, was either a dream or a spectral illusion —probably the latter. Brutus, in all likelihood had some idea that the battle which was to decide his fate would be fought at Philippi ; probably it was a good military position, which he had fixed upon as a fit place to make a final stand ; and he had done enough to Cæsar to account for his own mind being painfully and constantly engrossed with the image of the assassinated Dictator. Hence the verifications of this supposed warning—hence the easy explanation of a supposed supernatural event.

At Newark-upon-Trent, a curious custom, founded upon the preservation of Alderman Clay and his family by a dream, has prevailed since the days of Cromwell. On the 11th March, every year, penny loaves are given away to any one who choose to appear at the town hall and apply for them, in commemoration of the alderman's deliverance, during the siege of Newark by the parliamentary forces. This gentleman, by will, dated 11th December, 1694, gave to the mayor and aldermen one hundred pounds, the interest of which was to be given to the vicar yearly, on condition of his preaching an annual sermon. Another hundred pounds were also appropriated for the behold of the poor, in the way above mentioned. The origin of this bequest is singular.— During the bombardment of Newark by Oliver Cromwell's forces, the alderman dreamed three nights successively that his house had taken fire, which produced such a vivid impression upon his mind, that he and his family left it ; and in a few days the circumstance of his vision actually took place, by the house being burned down by the besiegers.

THE SUBSCRIBER, grateful for past favors, respectfully informs his friends and the public that he continues to manufacture Edge Tools of every description, of the first quality and from the best materials, at No 12 Water street, Charlestown, and hopes by unremitting exertions to merit a continuance of public patronage.

STONE HOUSE!
IN LOWELL.
This elegant Mansion is now open for the reception of Boarders and Strangers. The "Stone House" needs no recommendation to those who have formerly visited it. It stands on the southerly bank of the Merrimack River, about a quarter of a mile from the business part of the town of Lowell, fronting on the main road leading from Lowell westward, and having a Piazza in rear which immediately overlooks "Pawtucket Falls," and commands a delightful and extensive prospect up and down the River.
No situation in this country combines greater advantages for a Summer residence, or resort of parties of pleasure. To many it will be some recommendation at this season, that excellent Salmon are taken in the Falls at this place. The admirers of mechanical art and power will not forget its vicinity in the most important and interesting of the Manufacturing towns in New England. The lovers of natural scenery will remember its elevated, cool and commanding site, perfectly secluded from the noise and business of the town.
The subscriber has fitted up and furnished the House at a liberal expense, and relying upon considerable experience in his business, and the utmost care and attention, hopes to be able to sustain its former reputation and meet the reasonable expectation of all who may be pleased to favor it with their patronage. COMMERCIAL HOUSE.
No. 94 COMMERCIAL STREET, BOSTON.

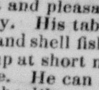

JOHN E HUNT begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that the above House is now open as a Summer Establishment. Having had a long experience in keeping a genteel "Restaurateur," and eating house, he flatters himself that the reputation which he has gained will ensure him a liberal patronage.
Clubs, Parties, Engine and Fire Companies, can be accommodated at short notice, with every thing which the season affords. Coffee, Soups and refreshments, at all hours, and the Bar will be found stocked with the best of Liquors and Wines.
Merchants in the neighborhood of Commercial wharf, Ship Masters, and the numerous business men in that part of the city, are respectfully invited to call and inspect the conveniences and accommodations of the place.
The House has been fitted up for an extensive but private Boarding House. Gentlemen intending to take the Southern Packets at the neighboring Slips, and Country Traders, will find airy rooms, good accommodations and prompt attendance, convenient to their business, and at the same time retired, comfortable, and "at home."
J. E. H. pledges himself to devote his undivided attention to the establishment, and will ensure the public an orderly, well conducted house.
☞ The Boston and Providence Union Line of Stages put up at this establishment. Stage Books for the Boston, Leominster, Westminster, Templeton, Athol, Greenfield, Brattleborough and Albany Mail Stages are kept at this House for those Lines. JOHN E. HUNT.

ROBINSON CRUSOE HOUSE.—CHELSEA BEACH.

THE subscriber having built a House on this well known and beautiful beach, at the Point of Pines, so called, is now ready for the reception of visitors. The situation of the place and the purity of the air, renders it a most healthy and agreeable resort. He has spared no pains in the construction of the house, to make it convenient and pleasant to those who may favor him with their company. His table will be furnished in a satisfactory manner ; fin and shell fish, of various descriptions, kept alive, and served up at short notice. His bar will be supplied to the general taste. He can accommodate a few more boarders, if any wish this healthy resort, through the warm season.
The public are assured that his Stable will be furnished with the best of hay and grain. With strict attendance, and a disposition to please, he trusts to give satisfaction to all those who may favor him with patronage. S. HAYES.

CHELSEA HOUSE.

The Subscriber would inform his friends and the public generally, that he will continue to entertain them at the above establishment, and having made considerable improvement in and about the same, he hopes to merit a continuance of patronage from the numerous visitors of this pleasant and fashionable resort. Its location renders it a delightful residence for boarders, especially during the warm weather—and the convenience of its accommodations, the charming prospect from its observatory, and the cool and refreshing breezes that distinguish it in summer, render it a very pleasant retreat for those in pursuit of health or pleasure.
Every attention will be paid to those who may visit this establishment, and no pains spared to make it a pleasant and agreeable resort to such as may honor him with their patronage. JAMES BRIDE.
Chelsea, May 24, 1834.—tf

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a number of years the spacious basement story of the new building recently erected, and known by the name of Codman's Buildings, in Wilson's Lane, on the westerly side of the United States Bank, a few feet from State street, which is fitted up in as good style as any of its class in the vicinity, and furnished throughout to correspond with the improved taste of the times, and will be opened this day for he reception of company.
It being the intention of the subscriber to furnish his friends and customers with every luxury which the market affords, (with the exception of ardent spirit,) and as he will superintend himself every branch of his business, he hopes his friends and the public will afford him that patronage which it is intended his establishment shall merit.
Gentlemen whose families remove out of town during the Summer months, will find it convenient to dine at the above establishment.
Refreshments from 5 o'clock, A. M. until 10 P. M. Hot dinners from 1 to 3. Soups every day.
june 14 Respectfully, &c. E. KENFIELD.

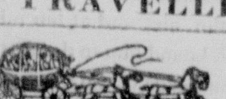

ADELPHI HOUSE.—The subscriber informs his friends and the public, that he has opened the commodious Tavern, corner of Ann and Cross streets, nearly opposite the Eastern Stage Offices, for the accommodation of regular and transient boarders. The House has been furnished with new furniture, bedding, &c. ; is situated within thirty rods of Faneuil Hall Market, and in the centre of the commercial part of the city. He hopes that by devoting his whole attention to the comfort and convenience of his patrons, he shall receive a share of public patronage.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1834.

Mr Durant's Balloon Ascension, yesterday, was one of the most beautiful and grand spectacles ever witnessed by the inhabitants of Boston. He commenced inflating his balloon at about half past two o'clock, P.M. —at four he let off a pioneer balloon, and half past four another, both of which took a North Easterly direction— at half past five he entered the car attached to his great balloon, and just as he was upon the point of cutting the last cord, the fastenings upon the mouth of the balloon gave way, and he was obliged to haul it down and refasten it—this, however, occasioned but a short delay ; he was soon again swinging in the air; and at ten minutes before six cut the cord which bound him to the earth, and sailed triumphantly over the heads of the thousands of spectators assembled to behold his aerial voyage into the dim distance of the clouds above. The course of the voyager appeared to be, after he had arrived at a considerable height, nearly East, and apprehensions were expressed that he might light upon the ocean— but we fervently hope that he may reach a safe resting spot, and soon give the numerous friends which his enterprise and urbanity have won for him, assurance of his perfect safety. We were much gratified to behold the amphitheatre so well filled—we should judge that there were 4000 persons within the inclosure—the number without could not have been less than twenty or thirty thousand, all of whom acknowledged the complete success of the undertaking, by loud and long continued shouts of applause, as Mr D. rose over them.

At sunset the outer Telegraph reported that the balloon had taken the water, five miles below Marblehead.

Nullification, a singular fact, is said to be just about co-extensive with the Gold Regions. The Nullifiers in Congress, all went for the Gold Bill, if we mistake not, to a man. Not the least happy result, therefore, of this great and important measure of the administration, will be to heal forever, we trust, this unhappy complaint of a generous, patriotic and high-minded, but mistaken, portion of the great American family. The mint of the United States will furnish a higher market for all American Gold, than any that can now be found upon the Globe. If interest, honorable, patriotic and permanent, will not secure the support of the people to this government, nothing on earth can ensure the support of any government.

There was no "compromise" about this great measure : and whether it succeed or fail, it is due to both parties to say, that all of one, and the most distinguished men of the other, united in its support. The Ex-President, Mr Adams, it is but rendering him justice to say, did himself honor on the final passage of the bill, and sunk the partizan in the patriot.

Coming On.—The old Federal party always declared man incapable of self-government—that the offices of President and Senators should be hereditary, or for life at least, if we did not copy the English form just as it stood, which, upon the whole, they believed the most perfect of any in existence. But these doctrines were put down—the poor thought that they could take care of themselves, without appointing the rich guardians over them, as Mr Webster recommends. But we find the same party, the Federalists, alias Nationals, alias Whigs! reviving the old cry that man is incapable of self-government, and implying that Monarchy is better than Democracy. Hear Col. Stone, the leading Whig (!) (Tory?) editor in New York :—

"From Mexico.—The res gestas of this hopeful republic are now presented for serious reflection. How far man, in his present state, guided by self-interest and swayed by passion, is fitted for self-government, is a problem which even our experience is not sufficient to solve. The past six years in the U. States have shown a blind devotion and ready subservience to a favorite leader, which, half a century ago, could not have been endured. This, too, has happened among a people professing to be, collectively, the most enlightened and independent on the face of the earth—a people subject to no control from hereditary caste or ecclesiastical domination. Although, therefore, from the flattering accounts received, we had hoped better things of Mexico ; yet, to the eye of philosophy, nothing better should have been presumed than is now developed."

How Noah would have battered the Colonel for the expression of such sentiments ten years ago.

"Horrible Proscription!" "Corrupt Office-holders!" "Hired Bands!" &c. &c.—The Atlas and its kindred prints have made a great cry about the "corrupt office holders" in the Boston Custom House—the amount they received, &c. Now we will state a fact which will expose the mendacity of that print, and its co-operators, and will, no doubt, astonish the public, after listening to the tales of the opposition press :—It is this : Of the whole amount paid annually to individuals employed in the Collector's department, EIGHT THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS IS RECEIVED BY GENTLEMEN OPPOSED TO THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION, AND ONLY SEVENTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS BY THOSE FRIENDLY TO IT !

The Salem Register says that Jack Downing's "conversion to the whig cause, is an event of no ordinary importance." The editor of the Register ought to know that the author of the letters on which he comments, the New York Jack Downing, has always been an active opponent of the administration—and for some time past, a Director in the U. S Bank.

Louisiana, the State of GEN. RIPLEY'S adoption, has done justice to the talents and patriotism of one of the most distinguished heroes of the last war, by electing him to Congress—and the democracy of the Union have a right to expect that Maine, which is, we believe, his native State, will, at the coming struggle, do justice to the principles for which he fought and bled.

We would inform Major Noah that the Sea Serpent is engaged in towing the opposition party up Salt Creek —the party was tied to the devil's tail last winter by the Bank Senators, whose attention he attracted by his golden scales.

Fruits of Experience.—Major Noah says—"There never was an era in which Mammon, the God of Gold, reigned with such universal power as at this moment."

The Whig papers begin to kick at the gold bill—the Newburyport Herald has raised its leg.

POLICE COURT.

Personal appearances are generally deceptive to a limited extent ; for rarely are the most gentle and winning external charms the temple of a spirit so divine, and thoughts so pure, or feelings and manners so chaste and bland, as those which a "sympathetic imagination" attributes to an enchanting or amiable exterior ; but in no instance, in our experience, extending over a period of upwards of thirty years, did we ever observe so marked and revolting a disparity between the "complement extern," and the indwelling life, as in the conduct of the defendants in the following case of M'Gregor against Jones and Wife, who were charged with an assault. The complainant was a rusty, short, stubby, round, ill-favored water-eyed wight, whose flesh appeared to quiver on his bones, like a basket of blubber, too plainly proving that the undying demon of drunkenness had fixed "his gloomy hell within ;" and no one could look on his bloated rotundity without being prepared to pronounce him guilty of any offence, springing from intemperance, that might be charged against him. On the other hand, Jones was quite a handsome and genteel chap, with a countenance sober and resigned ; and his wife, to appearance, was truly a truant spiritual emanation from above—a white cloud, formed in the likeness of a woman—that had strayed beyond the sphere of the skiey influences, and became entangled in the affairs of our lower world—with a tranparent complexion, more polished than marble, pale as a lilly, and mildly irradiated by a pair of timid blue stars, which traversed their limited orbits, with downcast and averted glances on the objects around her. Such was the "beautiful and bland expression" of her countenance, that had she been betrayed, by collision with the fouler spirits that haunt these lower regions, into an ardent expression, or even a look of scorn or anger, an admiring heart would have at once forgiven her, for the transient aberration from celestial complacency, and, relying on Pope for authority, say—

> "Yet graceful ease and sweetness void of pride,
> Might hide her faults, if faults she had to hide ;
> If to her share some female errors fall,
> Look on her face, and you'll forget them all."

With such prepossessions in their favor, did the handsome gentleman and his seraphic wife plead not guilty to the accusation of assaulting the vile bundle of animated matter that stood up before them. But the truth must be told at last :—the inoffensive Jones, who is a Welchman, and bears an inextinguishable animosity to Scotchmen, and particularly to M'Gregor, challenged him to fight ; but Mac, having been sick all night, with the cramp in his stomach, positively declined the pugilistic overture, by saying to his adversary— "My dear fellow, this is not the time or place, for such a serious undertaking ; and I know you are too much of a man to strike one who is so sick as to be hardly able to stand up." But Jones, being a genuine Captain Fluellen, was determined not to be done out of his fight by compliments, and at once gave him a blow in the face, while his angelic wife flew at him, and fixed her white taper fingers in his black, bushy hair, redolent of sweat, with as fierce tenacity as did the crow that imitated the eagle, which flew off with a sheep, by burying her claws in its woolly back. While Mrs Jones was employed in uncurling Mac's hair, Jones was doing his best to choak him, and might have succeeded in doing so, if several women had not struggled to get him away from the poor, ugly, sick and sorry Scotchman. There was not a shadow of testimony to build a defence on, and Jones was fined $3.00 and costs, and his belligerent better half twenty-five cents.

The Habits and the Appetites, though often confounded, are very distinct and different sort of personages, and very important companions in our pilgrimage through life. It behoves, us, therefore, not only to be well acquainted with them, but to master them—or they will master us. It is no less difficult to keep the acquaintance of the one, if they be good, than to cut that of the other, if they be bad. Appetites will dog your footsteps like a starved wolf ; habits lag behind like a pet lamb. A few days of indisposition, eked out with langnor and lassitude,

> "Which, like a wounded snake, drags its slow length along," admonishes us how the appetite of idleness, like a vampire, is sitting at the heart, sucking the life-blood of its energies ; while the habit of industry, once our guardian angel, abandons us to despair. Even our pet pen slips from the nerveless grasp, and the right hand forgets its cunning.

St. Louis, July 15th.—Cholera.—We learn from the last Missouri Enquirer, printed at Liberty, Clay county, that Cholera exists to an alarming degree among the Mormons who recently emigrated to that county, and that it had spread to those who previously resided there. In three or four days after it appeared, eighteen cases happened, thirteen of which were fatal ; and little hope was entertained of the recovery of any of the others. The disease, it is said, was confined to the Mormons.

The pestilence has appeared at Rushville, Pekin, and Dillon's settlement, near Pekin. At Rushville, eleven persons had died. At Pekin there were nine deaths. At Dillon's settlement, eight cases, and four deaths— Thomas Dillon, P. M., his wife and niece, and Mr. Hymer.

FOREIGN.

Two Days Latter from Europe.—By the arrival of the ship Jubilee, Capt. Luce, from London, we last evening received a file of the London Morning Herald to the 26th inst. inclusive. The following extracts contain every thing of interest.—N. Y. Gaz.

New York papers to the 3d had been received at London.

Accounts from Madrid of the 18th June, state that the Cholera had almost entirely subsided.

Letters of the same date state that the council of Government has proposed that the decree, depriving Don Carlos of his titles and estates should be annulled, but the Ministers have refused their assent to the proposal.

Paris papers of the 24th are engrossed by the list of Deputies selected to the new Chamber. It was the general belief that the Ministerial majority would be overwhelming. Five per cents. 106f. 25c.

The Paris Journals contain some additional news from Madrid. Most of the persons who had been named Censors of the Press had declined the place, from its unpopular, if not onerous character.

It was reported in Paris that the Duc de Bassano (Maret) would be appointed Governor General of Algiers. M. Laffitte had been elected Deputy for two places, Bourbon-Vendee & Rouen.

In the House of Lords on the 24th, several petitions were presented in favor of the established church, and several in favor of the claims of dissenters. A long debate ensued, in which the Bishop of Landaff, the Lord Chancellor, the Duke of Wellington, Earl Grey and others took part, when the petition was laid on the table.

The Cotton Market at Liverpool, June 24, was rather dull, and the sales amounted to about 1,500 bags only. No change in the value of flour.

About 3,000 persons assembled recently, and destroyed every Scots weir on the Suir and the Barrow, from New Ross to Carrick. The mode of acting is illegal, but the weirs are illegal also.

The London Correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, under date of June 21st, says—

"Connected with Ireland, it would be just as well to state, that the first potatoe crop has failed, and that the second, it was feared, would not be sufficient to answer the demands of consumption. What a dreadful thing it is, to contemplate the starvation of millions, from the mere failure in the crop of such a vegetable. How miserable, wretched, and pitiable is the condition of such a people."

Lynch's Law.—The colored people since the late riots, also seem determined to take the law into their own hands. Saturday afternoon, maugre the broiling temperature, the negro loafers who congregate about the wharves, apprehended one of their fraternity, a mulatto, at Peck slip, and placing him thwartways across an empty hogshead, proceeded to apply to his person a gentle flagellation, with a delicate cowhide, until the culprit had roared out with Macbeth, "Hold ! enough !" He had been guilty of the high misdemeanor of skinning eels at reduced prices—a shade lower than agreed upon by the combination who pursue this odoriferous occupation, sufficiently delectable, we should think, in this hot weather, without the agreeable accompaniment of a horse-whip.—N. Y. Star.

Singular.—A lad, about 14 years of age, while passing on the road to Somersett, which leads from the river to Swansey village, late on Thursday evening, of last week, was met by a chaise with two men in it, the boot and top buttoned up close and travelling very moderately. Just as he was passing the chaise, one end of a small cord with a slip noose was thrown from the chaise, and glancing his head, fell at his feet. He immediately started upon a full speed. One of the men sprang from the chaise and pursued him some distance, until he approached near a house, when the pursuer returned to his comrade. Who the men were, or what was their object, is not known. Two physicians, strangers, were seen in the neighborhood just at night on whom suspicion has rested.—Fall River Monitor.

The New Orleans Mercantile Advertiser (Bank paper) of the 17th, contains election returns, from which it would seem that White is chosen by a majority of 1648—the total vote being 10,406. From the congressional returns it would seem that the Bank candidates in the first and third districts have succeeded ; but that the administration party have triumphed in the second, by the election of General Ripley, a warm friend to the administration and supporter of its measures.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

The Pittsburgh Advocate of Friday says :—"We have not heard of any cases of the Cholera for the last two days ; none have yet been officially reported to the board of health, and it is denied by several intelligent physicians, that any cases have originated in the city, although it is certain that some deaths have occurred amongst those who have brought the disease in its premonitory symptoms from places lower down upon the river."

Frederick Rapp.—This gentleman, who was extensively known in the West, as the principal man at Economy, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, died a few days since, after a lingering illness, in the sixtieth year of his age. He was a man of great enterprize and industry.—Cin. Gaz.

Three thousand five hundred dollars reward has been offered by the Insurance Companies of New Orleans, for the discovery of any person who may have had a hand in setting fire to any of the horses that had been lately destroyed in that city.

Captain Adams, arrived yesterday, informs that it remained quiet at Buenos Ayres when he left there, but a change of government would take place soon, as the Governor had resigned, and the House had the subject under debate.—N. Y. Gaz.

The wife of Zilpha Orser, aged 55 years, was killed by lightning, on the 15th, on Long Island, four miles from Kingston, U. C. The fluid was attracted by her spectacles.

A postcript to a letter received by the Steamboat packet Virginia, from Charleston, states — "I have just heard that the Steam Boat Watchman is burnt."—Norfolk Beacon.

The New Orleans Bee of the 15th instant says, "Martin, who robbed the Mechanics' Bank in this city, has been arrested and imprisoned at Puebla, in Mexico."

A company of Quakers have purcahsed land, at the settlement of St. George's Sound, New South Wales, to the amount of £30,000.

The Baptist Missionaries compelled to leave Jamaica, have returned to that island, having received £5000 from the British government.

Doctor Manley authorises the Evening Post to say, that "the city of New York, at this time, is more healthy than at any previous [corresponding] season."

BOSTON ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—TEACHERS' CLASS.—A course of instruction on the method of teaching Vocal Music upon the Pestalozzian system, will commence in Boston on the 19th day of August next, under the direction of the Professors in the Academy.

This course is designed for those persons who may wish to qualify themselves to teach juvenile classes, or common singing schools; and for those teachers of seminaries who wish to introduce music as a branch of education, or as a relaxation from other studies. A knowledge of this method is highly important to those who are engaged in teaching singing schools during the winter.

Two lessons each day will be given, in order that the course may be completed in ten days or a fortnight. This plan is adopted for the convenience of those who may be unable to make a protracted stay in the city.

Tickets for the course, at $5 each, may be had on application to Perkins, Marvin & Co. No. 114 Washington street.

april 19 NATHANIEL GREENE, Post Master.

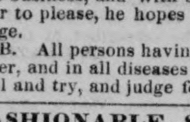

THOMAS R. CLARK, Optician, No. 69 Court street under the New England Museum, would most respectfully inform the public that he has on hand a good assortment of gold, silver, shell and steel mounted Spectacles; gold, silver and pearl Reading Eye Glasses, the latest English patterns; Goggles, Spirit Levels, Thermometers, Cloth and Linen Provers, variety of patterns.

Also, on hand a large assortment of glasses, variety of colers, concave and convex.

N. B. Spectacles manufactured at the above establishment, of the latest patterns, workmanship equal to any in this country. Spectacles and Thermometers, repaired at short notice, lower than can be done elsewhere.

REMOVAL.

ARTEMAS WHITE, formerly of the firm of WHITE & WILLIAMS, would inform his patrons and the public, that he has removed from the old stand in Hanover street, to a commodious shop erected by himself, for the sole purpose of the Farrier and Horse Shoeing business, situated on Brattle square, a few doors from Elm street, (directly opposite Brattle Square Church,) where he would at all times be happy to attend upon his old customers and the public, and from his long experience in the business, and with a full determination to do all in his power to please, he hopes to obtain a share of the public patronage.

N. B. All persons having horses subject to interferring, false quarter, and in all diseases of the feet, are respectfully invited to call and try, and judge for themselves. ep3m—jy 8

FASHIONABLE STRAW BONNETS.—The Greatest Assortment ever exhibited in this country.—S. H. BRIGHAM, Pemberton Hill, (opposite Hanover-st.) has completed her assortment for the spring trade, and offers for sale upwards of 4000 Bonnets, consisting of

Plain Tuscan,	prices	2	to	$10
Fancy do	"	3	"	7

Also—For sale, by the piece, every kind of Straw Goods for making Bonnets. Country traders and Milliners supplied at the lowest prices.

S. H. B. has in her employment 50 experienced Straw Sewers, and all her Bonnets are made under her own direction and her customers may be assured they are in the most fashionable style. eptf—mar 25

TERMS CASH.—JOHN G. WYMAN, Merchant Tailor, respectfully informs the customers of the late firm of Wyman & Fisher, and the public generally, that he continues the business at the old stand, No 8 Court street, and has made arrangements to do a Cash Business, by which he will be enabled to furnish garments at ten to fifteen per cent less than prices usually charged. Gentlemen from the country, and others who purchase for cash, will find it to their advantage to call and examine before purchasing; they will at all times find a large assortment of Fashionable Goods, suitable for the season; which will be made up to order in the most approved fashion. Extract from a letter written by Dr. J. C. Warren on the subject, dated March 2d, 1833—

"I find it a valuable invention, especially for vessels, and if it were geneaally used, it might be the means of saving life on many occasions. In regard to health, I believe it to be unobjectionable."

Signed, J. C. WARREN.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Waterhouse, dated August 12th, 1833—

"I have examined andtried your Chair Cushions, filled with grated cork, and am pleased with their neatness, and freedom from any thing like filth. Most people would, I believe, give the preference to those filled with rasped cork. I am pleased with their property of sustaining a person on the water, in case of shipwreck, fire, or explosion, and particularly recommend them for cots in steamboats, and will venture to predict their introduction."

Signed, BENJ. WATERHOUSE

Extract of a letter from Capt Preble, President of the Marin Society, Portland, Me.

"I am perfectly satisfied that it will answer the purpose of a comfortable bed for seamen, and a life preserver in time o shipwreck."

Signed, ENOCH PREBLE.

Certificates of three gentlemen who witnessed the exhibition in Boston harbor—

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify, that we were present at the experiment made by Mr Knapp, on Saturday, the 10th inst., with a Mattrass, filled with grated cork, to sustain a person on the water, from the Castle to Long wharf, which proved successfull to our utmost satisfaction. We are happy to state that we are perfectly satisfied as it respects its property in securing persons from shipwreck as intended. We do therefore recommend their use, particularly to mariners, and venture to say, that their introduction on board of vessels, will prove highly important and valuable hereafter.

Signed, JONATHAN A. BARRY,

A. WATKINS, THOMSONIAN BOTANIC PHYSICIAN—Infirmary, Harvard street, (opposite 499 Washington street,) Boston—Has been acquainted with and possessed of a right to use Dr. Samuel Thomson's Patent Vegetable Medicine, for the last 21 years, and administered them in Europe, and South and North America, (including the West India Islands,) and with as much success as any other can, (with truth,) boast of. In the nine months' practice he has had at the Harvard street Infirmary, he has not had the misfortune to lose ONE patient, although many of them had been for years in the hands of the members of the Medical Faculty, and some of them abandoned to their (supposed) hopeless tate. As he is so well known in Boston, it is unnecessary to enter very largely into a detail of success. The following are a few o his patients :—

Stephen Gore, (inquire at Thomas Holland's Beach street, Boston,) totally blind for about 5 months, one eye, nearly destroyed, general debility, legs swollen and lame—appeared completely charged with poisons. General health restored; eye sight good—could see to read (without glasses) in 5 courses, &c. better than he could for seven years previous.

Mr. Parker, now assistant at the Infirmary, rheumatism and dyspepsia, cured in 3 courses.

Francis Kemlo, 153 Court street, Boston, severe indigestion and spasms, cured in four courses, &c.

Thomas Pierson, of Roxbury, and keeps a stall in the new Market, Boston,) erysipelas in the face and one eye; leg very much swollen and ulcerated from the knee to the ancle for the last 25 years—attended by many physicians; nearly cured in 5 weeks.

Miss Charlotte Pierson, do. white swelling, with loss of appetite, &c. under medical treatment 5 months, and unable to walk—cured in 3 weeks.

Jesse Brown, baker, of Roxbury, rheumatic and retrocedent gout; stomach, knees, ancles and toes greatly affected; has been confined to bed nine weeks—cured in 4 courses, &c.

Miss A. Brown, his daughter, scrofula or king's evil, cured with 4 courses, &c.

J. D. Smith, of Lexington, dyspepsia, ofseveral years continuance—cured in 3 courses. &c.

Samuel Hawes, of Weymouth, rheumatism in the back, strictures in the urinary passage, general emaciation, &c.—cured in 6 courses, &c.

S. Smith, calico printer, of Lynn, pain in the stomach and back, and strictures across the breast, &c.—cured in 2 courses.

—— Toll, of Shepard street, Lynn, fits and severe cholic, from indigestion—cured in 2 days!

Benj. Morgan, of Salem, cancerous or scorbutic humors hand ulcerated, debility and loss of flesh; piles severe, and unable to dress or undress himself for a considerable time—cured with 5 courses, &c.

Joseph Kerrier, of Salem, rheumatism in his shoulders and arms—cured in 2 courses, &c.

Sarah Town, of Andover, indigestion, severe pains throughout the system, and piles—cured with 3 courses, &c.

Mrs Lucinda Kerr, Sea street, Boston, salt rheum; top of the head one entire scab—cured in 4 courses, &c.

A. W. cannot be at the expense to enumerate more cases, at present. He has not named cases of fevers, they are almost too ephemeral in the hands of a physician acquainted with his duty—the ignoramus or continued fever, is unknown in the practice of such. Delicacy will not not permit the naming of several diseases, which he has treated with universal success. In almost all the cases of diseases which have been treated by him, he has been under the necessity to expel not only the disease, but the poisons which produced and continued them—and all with INNOCENT and HARMLESS SIMPLES.

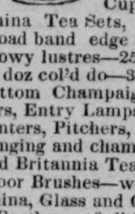

This practice induces him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons af the Medical Faculty from the human system, when resorted to in seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above, of

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON.
